EARLY OPENING OF ROAD SEEN

Rumor Says Heavy Equipment May Arrive To Clear Snow From Echo Summit Soon

An early opening of the Echo summit to automobile travel is scheduled, if rumors current in the community Wednesday morning are to be credited.

Placerville Ski Club members received the report with hope, for they have been awaiting snow removal which will permit travel to the Twin Bridges area, before going ahead with their plans for a state sanctioned tournament.

During the winter, the road has been open most of the time as far as Fred's Place, but the topography in this area does not permit of a well-arranged tournament, according to club members.

It was reported Wednesday morning that a large plow has been taken into the state shops at Sacramento from another snow area for repairs, and upon its being put into condition it will be sent to Fred's Place to begin clearing the road. This work, if the report is to be credited, may start within the next few days.

Ed Willis, state district maintenance superintendent, said Wednesday morning he has no word on plans to open the road.

He reported that a shovel has been working for several weeks in the American River canyon, cleaning up slides along the roadside.

FOLSOM DRAWS PROTEST ON GAME SUNDAY WITH ROSEVILLE

Al Wolf, manager of the Wolf and Royer team of Roseville, has filed a protest of last Sunday's game with the Folsom team with League Secretary "Scoop" Thurman.

In his protest Manager Wolf charges that Manager Charles Gallagher of the Folsom club, after removing pitcher Clarence Hart from the game in the second inning, sent him back into the game as a coach at third base in the fifth inning, contrary to the rules of baseball.

The protest has been sent to League President Clarence Gregory by the secretary for his decision. According to the rules of the league all protests must be filed in writing with the league secretary within twenty-four hours after the game is played.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES ARE ANNOUNCED FOR PLACERVILLE CHURCHES

Good Friday Observances Begin At Noon And Continue Until Three O'Clock; St. Patrick's Church Events Told; 3 Congregations Unite For Friday Rites

Union Good Friday services will be held from noon until 3 o'clock at the Church of Our Saviour.

The El Dorado County Federated church and the Placerville Church of the Nazarene will join with the members of the Church of Our Saviour in the service and the general public is invited to attend.

The Rev. Rex A. Barron, rector of the Church of Our Saviour, will be assisted by the Rev. Harold Morehouse, of the Federated church and the Rev. Harold Miller, officiating for the Placerville Church of the Nazarene.

The service, opening at 12 o'clock, has been arranged upon the theme of the Seven Words of the Cross and will be conducted in a series of seven units, the three pastors sharing in the services with short sermons upon each of the seven words.

It is suggested that those who desire to attend church on Good Friday, but find it impossible to remain throughout the full service, may be able to arrange to attend at least a portion of the time.

In addition to the Good Friday service and to the special Easter Sunday programs being planned in all churches, it is announced that the young people of the three churches participating in the union service are planning an Easter Sunday sunrise service, to be held atop Sacramento Hill at 5 o'clock Sunday morning.

Chester Green Trial To Be April 27th
The trial of Chester Green, charged with disturbing the peace and with driving while drunk, was set Wednesday morning by Acting Police Judge T. F. Lewis for April 27th.

Green appeared in court with Attorney C. W. Pearson and entered a plea of not guilty to charges, requesting a trial by jury. He had been arrested over the week-end on complaint of Mrs. Green and is at liberty on bail of $200.

Capital Rodeo April 29th

Three-Day Event Will Be Held At Race Track On State Fair Grounds

(C. N. P. A. Inc., Service)

Sacramento will hold its first annual World Champions' Cowboy Contest and Rodeo at the California State Fair Grounds, April 29, 30 and May 1, with a program which will establish it as one of the major rodeos of the West.

The event is sponsored by the Sacramento-Golden Empire Centennial as a prelude to the Centennial celebration in 1939, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the founding of Sacramento. Next year the rodeo will be one of the principal features of the Centennial program.

Roy Clair, rodeo manager, announces that $4,325 in prizes will be offered in competitive events for the three days. Competition will be under the rules of the Rodeo Association of America.

The events will take place on the infield and track in front of the State Fair grandstand. Abe Lefton, noted announcer, will be master of ceremonies. Cara-May Cutter, noted Sacramento rider, will preside as Rodeo Queen.

Eagles To Mark Mothers' Day

Aerie Will Unite In Morning Church Service; Delegates To State Aerie Are Elected

Members of Placerville Aerie No. 889, F. O. E., will attend services at the Church of Our Saviour on Sunday morning, May 8, in a body, in observance of Mothers' Day.

Mothers' Day was founded by the fraternity and the day is kept similarly by Eagles throughout the country. Plans for the occasion, of which Euell Y. Gray is general chairman, were made at the meeting of Placerville Aerie on Monday night, at which time delegates to the state aerie were elected.

The elected delegates are Arthur Mart, Roscoe Larkin, Joseph Shepard and W. R. Glasgow. Worthy President Frank Ward and the immediate past president, Joe Berneick, are automatically delegates under lodge rules.

Alternates for the elected delegates are William Allison, Robert Reeder, Ed Laveroni and John Van Alstine. The state aerie meets at San Diego, June 10, 11 and 12.

An initiation and the nomination of officers will be in order at the next meeting of the aerie on April 25. The Monday night meeting closed with a motion picture program and refreshments.

MRS. EDITH BAALKE IS NEW PRESIDENT OF P.-T. A. UNIT

Smith Flat P.-T. A. held its regular meeting Friday, April 8th, with Mrs. Grace Goldman in the chair. Mrs. E. Baalke, newly elected president, was installed with full ceremony by Mrs. Goldman, retiring president.

In reviewing the year's work, Smith Flat, P.-T. A. finds it has earned and fully paid for all necessary equipment for 25 tables of cards, including tables, chairs, dishes, silver, and table covers and also purchased a kitchen stove and started improvements on the old school building which the unit has undertaken to remodel into a community hall. The unit feels this is a very good showing for a small unit of 20 members.

Mrs. Baalke appointed the following committee chairman for the new year: Mrs. Merna O'Dare and Mrs. Wanda Jacquier, card party; Mrs. Fay Rupy, hospitality; Mrs. Nutt, and Mrs. Stevens, program; Mrs. Marion Carpenter, publicity. The next card party will be on Saturday night, May 7th, and the unit promises the usual good time.

FRED N. HOSKING HEADS TICKET; TOTAL OF 706 VOTES CAST

Board Members Organize For New Term Next Monday Night Following Canvass Of Returns; James K. Pierson May Be Chosen Mayor; 2 Are Ineligible To Receive Pay

Placerville approved the limited pay for councilmen and elected Fred Hosking, Charles Molinari and A. H. Greeley to the city board in the municipal election held on Tuesday.

The incumbent trustees will meet at the city hall Monday night to canvass the returns in the election following which the newly chosen members of the Council will be seated and the board will organize for the new year.

It is considered more than a probability that James K. Pierson may succeed George E. Faugstad as mayor.

Pierson and Faugstad are hold-over Councilmen and have two more years of their present terms to serve.

Councilman Fred N. Hosking led the field of eight candidates in the race for three council posts and piled up a total of 364 votes of a total of 706 ballots cast.

Hosking was the only one of the three incumbents who were candidates for re-election, to survive, but it was the first time he had been elected to the office. He was appointed councilman two years ago to fill the unexpired term of W. H. Myers, resigned.

Election totals were as follows:

On the proposition to pay members of the council at the rate of $5 per meeting for not more than two meetings in any one calendar month, Yes, 324; No, 284.

Lions "Install" Councilman

Molinari "Initiated" Before, During And After Election In Meeting At Jackson

Councilman-elect Charles F. Molinari was "installed" in office at a joint meeting of the Lions Clubs of Placerville and Jackson at Jackson Gate, Tuesday evening.

Lion Molinari was one of approximately twenty Lions who left Placerville at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening by Pierce Arrow stage for Jackson Gate and his fellow club members declared him elected as soon as the bus got under way, although it was yet an hour before the polls would close in the municipal election.

Molinari was introduced to the Jackson Club as Councilman Molinari, and, according to reports, each introduction called for a visit from the tail-walker—and there were many introductions.

Toward the close of the meeting, members of the Placerville Club telephoned from Jackson to learn how the election came out and received the report that Molinari was among those elected.

Charles, it is reported, complained that "it cost me my salary for the first two months to get elected."

NATIVE SONS NAME TRIO OF DELEGATES TO GRAND PARLOR

Placerville Parlor No. 9, Native Sons of the Golden West, will be represented at the 61st Grand Parlor of the order, which meets at San Jose May 16th by Grand Third Vice-President Henry S. Lyon and three delegates who were elected at the parlor's meeting, Tuesday night.

The delegates elected are Leo Ench, Lawrence Barrette and Ellsworth Willard.

The election of delegates was at the regular meeting of the parlor which followed a "Dinty Moore" supper, served in the banquet room at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. C. C. Clinker, of Ottumwa, Iowa, has been a house guest of the L. L. Vyes for the past several days.

SOFTBALL FIELD BE LIGHTED

Enthusiasts Devise Ways And Means To Underwrite Cost Of Project By Ticket Sales

The playing field at M. P. Bennett, Jr., Memorial Park is to be electrically lighted for the coming summer series of softball games.

This announcement followed a meeting of the committee in charge of the softball league now being formed, on Monday evening.

The committee had applied to the Board of Supervisors for lighting of the field, anticipating that the project might be paid for out of funds earned by last year's county fair. However, the County Fair Board recommended to the Supervisors that the request be turned down, since the Fair Board has its own problems and will need its funds for the 1938 exposition.

In view of this situation, the softball committee has developed a plan of printing and selling 800 tickets for softball admissions. These will be sold at 50 cents per ticket and each ticket will be good for six admissions to softball games. Proceeds of the sale, which is hoped may approximate $400, will go toward paying for the lighting installation.

The committee has a competent estimate that it will cost $385 to complete the installation. Various softball players have volunteered to contribute labor to the cause, and some players have indicated they will accept the tickets in blocks of fifty and endeavor to dispose of them.

The committee named S. E. Price to be treasurer of the organization.

It was said that the league probably will consist of sixteen teams and that as a result of a voluntary preliminary series of games in which the clubs are engaging, it may not be necessary to stage the "classification series" as planned, which would be the basis of grouping the teams into two divisions.

Members of the committee indicated the league play may be started about May 15.

LADIES SOFTBALL MEET IS CALLED FOR APRIL 20

The ladies are going to have a busy day on Wednesday of next week, April 20th.

First off, there's the opening meeting of the Homecraft Opening Meeting and Consumer's Clinic, at the Shakespeare clubhouse in the afternoon, with Mrs. Jane Barton in charge.

The second big event of the day will be a meeting at the P. G. & E. Company offices at 8 o'clock in the evening, at which the matter of ladies' softball teams will be taken up.

All women players and others interested are urged to attend this meeting, which is called by S. E. Price and Harvey Lyons, who have been appointed to the duty by the committee which is arranging the county softball league schedule.

Assistant Forester A. N. Weber was at Slate Mountain and in the Mosquito district on Wednesday.

Hosking High In City Election

Other candidates and the total votes which they received are:

S. E. Price (incumbent) 274; Philip Frost (incumbent) 260; James Sweeney, 249; J. W. Lee, 193; Henry Toedt, 89. There was one write-in ballot cast at the city hall for Vernon Allen.

According to law, only the newly-elected councilmen may benefit from the $5 per meeting fee voted by the voters. Councilmen Paugsted and Pierson will complete their terms without pay, since the law provides, according to city officials, that no officer's pay may be increased and no pay may be started during his term of office.

The election was conducted at two polling places, the El Dorado Irrigation District office, at which State and County Precincts 36 and 37 voted; and at City Hall, where State and County Precincts, 8, 9, and 10 voted.

The totals on the vote in each separate election precinct were as follows:

At the water district office: Pay for councilmen, Yes, 110; No, 93; and for the several candidates: Frost, 80; Hosking, 117; Price 79; Greeley, 115; Lee, 68; Molinari, 89; Sweeney, 111; Toedt, 27; total vote cast in this precinct, 237.

At city hall: Pay for councilmen, Yes, 214; No, 181; and for the several candidates: Frost, 180; Hosking, 257; Price, 193; Greeley, 183; Lee, 125; Molinari, 212; Sweeney, 138; Toedt, 62; total votes cast in this precinct, 469.

CO-ED STYLISTS WOULD SHORTEN MEN'S TROUSERS

ST. PAUL (AP)—The men at Macalester College are at their wits' end to combat suggestions by campus co-eds who would dictate how men should dress.

An enterprising girl reporter on the college weekly paper started the whole thing by conducting a survey among the girls.

The young women advised, for instance, that the men would "look ducky" in off-the-face hats with a ribbon looped under the chin. They suggested also a three-quarter length suit coat of eight gores. That, it was explained, would insure a fitting fullness to be set off with a gay zipper down the front.

The trousers must be shortened. Five inches from the instep, unless you have flat feet, would be the proper length to set off those stick-candy sox. The cuffs would be "pin tucks," and in place of the tailored belt, co-eds advise use of a soft band of flowered silk about the waist.

Vests, if the co-eds had their way, would be cut on the bias, and made in bright colors.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (U)—In a week or so the baseball season opens. We know the players are fit and ready for the long campaign. They have been here in Florida, in California, in Louisiana or in other warm climates, beautifying their biceps, conditioning their calves and generally getting themselves into what the Mayo brothers like to speak of as "the pink."

But what about the baseball fans? What sort of shape are they in? They have been to no training camps and will start the season entirely out of condition. That is, unless they take my advice and spend these last few days preparing themselves for the rigors of attending baseball games.

Take an average fan; he'll go out to that first baseball game and yell to the boy for a bag of peanuts. The boy will throw the peanuts to him from at least ten rows away and he will miss the bag, thereby spilling four or five of the peanuts. Now a man can't afford to lose that many peanuts out of a bag he buys at a baseball game because there are only eleven in the sack to begin with. At the end of the season last year he could have made a nice one handed catch. To sharpen his eye I suggest that fans stand in the center of their best rugs and have some one toss them bottles of ink. Peanuts will be a cinch after that.

The hot dog presents another problem. After a hot dogless five months the stomach should be gently prepared for the reception of this mixture of hot mustard, cold roll and warm dog. Taken suddenly it will do the same thing to you that the apple did to Snow White. To get ready for the season I suggest that twice a day you eat a child's tennis shoe, parboiled in hot water. The danger of this is that the fan might not want to go back to hot dogs.

No fan is ready for the opening of the season until he has acquainted himself with the background of the new umpires. It is impossible to mercilessly taunt a man unless one is thoroughly familiar with his weaknesses. To call an umpire simply a blind thieving bum when you might have called him a wife stealing arsonist, is simply a waste of time.

Opening day ceremonies offer a unique problem to the fan. He was bored on opening day last year but not as badly as he will be bored this year because last year was only the 15th time he had seen the same ceremony. This year will be the sixteenth time he has seen some prominent citizen throw out the first ball, while an inferior band plays a sepulchral march and the players march self-consciously out of step to the centerfield flag pole. To prepare for this a fan must practice being bored without going to sleep. Being Scotch-Irish, I manage this by holding a nickel in my mouth while watching the ceremony.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (U)—Putting the sports shot here and there:

Detroit owner, Walter Briggs, watches Rudy York blasting balls over the fence and advises sportswriters to think twice before they sell his Tigers short. . . . Some of the boys are picking them to finish behind New York and Cleveland. . . . York hit two home runs and a triple in a game against Brooklyn last week. . . . The three-bagger traveled 410 feet to the center field fence. . . . Those homers may still be rolling. . . . The last time they were seen, was clearing a two-story church across the street from the left field wall. . . . That wall is about 375 feet from home plate.

Publicity letter heads from Steve Dudas' German training camp, bear the American flag in one corner and the Swastika in the other. . . . Dudas is Schmelling's last opponent before Maxie squares off against Joe Louis in June. . . . Mike Jacobs still won't say where the title fight will be but the New York Yankees will be traveling and the stadium will be available on the night he has set. . . . June 22. . . .

Larry McPhail hopes the Dodgers are improved as much as Ebbets field. . . . Flatbush customers will hardly know the old stand with a fresh coat of paint. . . . New infield sod is supposed to make infield antics fewer. . . . Larry Miller, of the Atlanta Crackers, has been likened to Wes Ferrell. . . . Built similar to Wes, Miller is a pitcher who can hit in the pinch. . . .

If War Admiral and Seabiscuit ever gallop for a hundred grand, it'll probably be at Chicago's Arlington track. . . . Belmont's biggest stockholder, C. V. Whitney doesn't approve of such large purses. . . . The preakness will be worth about $75,000 this year. . . . Tommy Farr still thinks he's pretty handy with his dukes. . . . Whipped by Louis, Braddock and Baer in his only American appearances, the scarified Welshman was offered $15,000 to fight in Los Angeles. . . . He yelled for $20,000. . . .

SHINGLE WOMAN FINED $10 IN ADMISSION OF PETTY THEFT

Mrs. Ora Marogna, of Shingle Springs, was fined $10 Tuesday in city court when she pleaded guilty before acting police judge T. F. Lewis to a charge of petty theft.

The complaint was preferred by Traffic Officer D. W. Le Bourveau, who took Mrs. Marogna into custody on Friday after complaint had been made by Miss Hazel Davey, employed at the fountain at Robinson's drug store, that someone had taken her purse from the place where she had laid it on the counter.

Miss Davey described persons who had been in the store shortly before she missed the purse and Le Bourveau, taking up the investigation, overtook Mrs. Marogna and her small daughter near El Dorado on their way home from the county seat.

Questioning the two, Le Bourveau reports he was given a pair of gloves which had been in the purse and that the child told him she had taken the gloves but had not taken the purse. On the strength of this evidence, Le Bourveau notified Mrs. Marogna she was under arrest and would have to return to Placerville, whereupon, he reports, as he walked around their car, the child gained the purse from some place where it had been hidden and presented it to him. The officer said Mrs. Marogna was closing her handbag as he walked up to the car.

Hearing in the matter was continued until Tuesday, Mrs. Marogna being released on recognizance. Tuesday morning in a conference with officers, they report, the child continued to insist that she had taken the purse and it was only when the two were separated that Mrs. Marogna admitted taking the purse herself.

Judge Lewis, in passing sentence, told Mrs. Marogna he felt that although she was pleading guilty to petty theft, the fact that she permitted the child to claim responsibility for the pilfering was a far more serious crime than the one with which she was charged.

Mosquito Camp Ordered Out

Unit Moves April 23 To Site In Montana; New Company To Occupy Caldor On May 10th

Mosquito CCC camp has been transferred to Sun River, Montana, and will move about April 23, according to word received by Forest Supervisor Edwin F. Smith.

Mr. Smith said Tuesday he also has been advised that a new CCC unit is being assigned to the Caldor Camp and will occupy that post about May 10.

It was announced that, pending the departure of the Mosquito unit, Sam Speers, forest service work superintendent at Mosquito, will divide his time between that camp and the new unit which is expected to become established at Snowline camp this week. This last unit is from Texas.

Some concern has been expressed in unofficial circles over rumors that one or both of the new camps coming to the county would be made up of colored enrollees. It seems that the concern is unwarranted and the rumor, a rumor and nothing more.

A declaration of their intention to wed was filed Tuesday with County Clerk, Arthur J. Koletzke by Robert Thomas Long, 21, of Roseville, and Jean Kling, 17, of Rescue. The certificate was accompanied by a statement of consent by the bride-elect's mother.

"MR. MOTO'S GAMBLE" CLOSING TONIGHT AT EMPIRE

Pity the poor criminal who runs against Moto-Chan Incorporated!

That's exactly what happens in "Mr. Moto's Gamble," which ends tonight at the Empire Theater. Mr. Moto, ably personified by Peter Lorre, the star, is aided in his solution of a weird crime by none other than Keye Luke, who already has gained a host of admirers for his role as Number One Son of Charlie Chan.

It is a story situation that certainly never occurred to the creators of Mr. Moto or Mr. Chan.

But the idea of combining the heroes of two great detective stories is not without precedent.
